CEREMONY TRADITIONS

Academic Regalia

The origins of academic dress date back to the earliest days of the oldest colleges. A statute of the University of Coimbra in 1321 required that all “Doctors, Licentiates, and Bachelors” wear gowns. In England, in the second half of the 14th century, the statutes of certain colleges forbade “excess in apparel” and prescribed the wearing of a long gown. Long gowns may have been necessary for warmth in unheated buildings. When American colleges and universities desired to adopt a suitable system of academic apparel in 1895, it seemed best to agree on a system which all would follow. Accordingly, a code of academic dress for colleges and universities of the United States was established.

Gowns

The gown for the associate and bachelor’s degree has pointed sleeves. The gown for the master’s degree has an oblong sleeve, open at the wrist; the rear part of its oblong shape is square cut, and the front part has an arc cut away. The gown for the doctoral degree has bell-shaped sleeves. Black is the recommended color. Gowns for the bachelor’s or master’s degrees are untrimmed. For the doctoral degree, the gown is faced down the front with black velvet with three bars of the same across the sleeves, or these bars may be of velvet of the color distinctive of the disciplines to which the degree pertains.

Hoods

The hoods vary in length: 48 inches for the doctoral degree, 42 inches for the master’s degree and 36 inches for the bachelor’s degree. All hoods are lined in the silk of the academic color or colors of the institution conferring the degree. If the institution has more than one color, the colors are shown in divisions using chevrons. The binding or edge of the hood is usually made in velvet in the color designating the subject in which the degree was granted. Regalia for the associate degree does not include a hood.

Honor Cords

Students belonging to academic honor societies or the National Student Nurses’ Association may wear special cords during commencement. Colors correspond to the following organizations:

Lambda Beta	Blue and Green
Lambda Nu	Green and Maroon
National Student Nurses’ Association – Leaders	Purple, Teal and Gold
National Student Nurses’ Association – Members	Purple, Light Blue and Silver
Phi Theta Kappa	Blue and Gold
Sigma Theta Tau	Purple and White
Student Nurses’ Association of Pennsylvania	Blue, White and Gold
Upsilon Phi Delta	Red and Blue

— Banner Colors —

The color of the banner carried at the head of each group of graduates denotes the type of degree conferred. Navy banners indicate associate degree or certificate programs. White banners indicate bachelor's degree programs. Orange banners indicate master's degree programs. The navy and orange banner indicates the doctorate degree program.

— Latin Honors —

Undergraduate students who have earned consistently superior grades in their coursework are recognized for their achievements with the designation of graduation honors. Cum laude honors are awarded for a cumulative grade point average between 3.50 and 3.74; magna cum laude honors for a cumulative grade point average between 3.75 and 3.94; and summa cum laude honors for a cumulative grade point average between 3.95 and 4.00. Honors noted in this program reflect grade point averages at the time of printing.

— About the Keynote Speaker —

The 2022 Commencement keynote speaker is Mr. Andy Carter. Mr. Carter is the President and CEO of the Hospital and Healthsystem Association of Pennsylvania (HAP). In this role, he represents nearly 240 acute and specialty care hospitals and health systems across the state, providing care for 12.8 million Pennsylvanians. He works with a 28-member board of directors and a team of 50 staff to lead the advocacy, policy, communications, non-dues revenue, and member service initiatives of one of the nation's largest statewide health care advocacy organizations. Before coming to HAP, Andy served for nearly six years as the president and CEO of the Visiting Nurse Associations of America (VNAA), the national voice for nonprofit, community-based home health and hospice agencies. Before the VNAA, he led the Ohio Children's Hospital Association, where he created new public funding streams for Ohio's six regional children's hospitals and established the nation's first statewide pediatric quality improvement initiative. Prior to entering the association field, Andy served for 20 years in a variety of leadership positions in community relations, state government, and business in Maryland, Massachusetts, and Ohio. He is an honors graduate of Georgetown University and holds a Master of Public Policy degree from Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government. He is married with two adult children and lives in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

— Bravura Brass Quintet —

Special thanks to the Bravura Brass Quintet for providing the music for our ceremony.

— Commencement Photos —

GradImages is the official photographer for our Commencement. Proofs will be sent to your home and via email within three to five days after graduation. Pictures can be ordered online, by phone, or by mail. GradImages can be contacted at 800-261-2576 or via email at www.gradimages.com.

— #PACollegeGrad22 —

Please join us in the celebration of this year's graduating class by using the hashtag #PACollegeGrad22 to share your excitement across social media!

The listing of degree candidates and Latin honors in this publication is not an official documentation of actual graduates. The conferral of a degree is by receipt of an official transcript noting degree completion.
